

Trainers

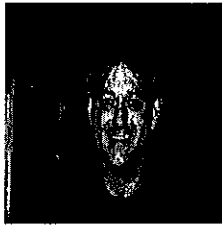

Don Dodkin

Don was the Head Teacher of a happy and successful Hertfordshire primary school for many years. He is now enjoying retirement at his home in Bedfordshire.

His interests include music, playing the guitar and walking his dog Ollie. Don is an enthusiastic member of the HAD (Henlow Amateur Dramatics Group) and can be seen appearing in their annual panto - usually in a starring role.

Stuart Hall

Stuart's interest in the natural world can be traced back to his childhood, becoming an RSPB volunteer at an early age. This interest continued into adulthood, when he started his own RSPB youth group. Stuart spent five years as Education Officer at The Green Quay Environment Centre, before taking up his current role as Community Outreach Officer for the Norfolk Museum & Archaeology Services.

Brian Hallworth

Employed by Macclesfield Borough Council, Brian is described as the storyteller and bard of the Ranger Service. His ability to inspire children to learn about the environment is one of Brian's many talents. Brian has a wide knowledge of birds and a passion for all wildlife.

Barbara Hill

Barbara is an experienced early years practitioner, specialising in special educational needs. She is now happily retired and living in Hertfordshire.

Barbara's interests are her dogs and her family. She works as a volunteer for the RSPB.

Julie Padget

Julie is a KS1 and Foundation Stage teacher based in Liverpool, married with a son and daughter. As a family they enjoy discovering interesting places and watching wildlife, especially the birds. Julie has been a leader of the RSPB youth group in Liverpool for five years, and feels and this has helped her realise how much birdlife there is to be seen from our urban doorsteps.
